FOREWORD

Beauty, strength, and pictorial bits of interest make a wonderful building. These three are also the trend in modern publications. To embody these ideals in this, the 1931 Oracle, we, the staff of 1931, have diligently worked.

In an endeavor to incorporate into this book, our beautiful building we have chosen as our theme, the nooks and crannies of the school.

May this pleasing union presented in modern fashion bring hours of joy to the remeniscing graduate.

The road ahead seems longer
  Since you're gone,
The lights a little dimmer
  And the path
A little more obscured.
  A fainter trail
Lies in the distance
  Leading on to that
Horizon where the weary
  Pilgrim ends
His plodding way and
  Claims his just reward.

DEDICATION

To Miss Edwardh, who has been the faithful adviser of the Oracle for five years, whose generous aid, kindly encouragement, and helpful advice has enlightened our tasks and contributed to the success of our book, we lovingly dedicate this Oracle, the fifteenth annual publication of the Duluth Denfeld High School.

TO DENFELD

Things were brought from all the world,
And willing worker's hands
Built up a thing of beauty,
At the place where Denfeld stands.

Massive doors which seem to say,
"Come in and stay awhile!"
And windows like so many eyes,
Which always gently smile.

Inside there are long corridors,
And lockers, row on row,
Which seem to shisper secrets
About the things they know.

Each classroom is a pleasant place,
The gym is long and wide.
Our chapel is so wonderful
That one feels awed, inside.

Outside, the clock tower reaches
Up, up into the sky,
It's painted on our memory,
And the scene can never die.

—Delphie Bernett.

OUR SCHOOL

The Duluth Denfeld Senior High School is situated in the western section of Duluth between Forty-fourth and Forty-sixth avenues west and between Fourth and Sixth streets. It is located in the residential district on a plot of ground containing fifteen acres.

The building is "H" shaped. The structure is made from brick with stone trimming, and is three stories in height. The south wing of the school is devoted to the auditorium, gymnasium and locker rooms, the north wing contains the sciences, music and manual arts, while in the central part are the study halls and the recitation rooms. All of these rooms have the best heating, lighting and ventilating systems.

As the enrollment of the school is over thirteen hundred it is necessary to have accomplished instructors in most every subject that can be taught in a high school to accommodate the students wishing to have varied courses.

The courses given in Denfeld are in compliance with the requirements of the State Board of Education, but are at the same time flexible enough so that the student may select various combinations of subjects to fit his respective needs, whether it be for college, university entrance or to enter his life's work.

There are intensive extra curricula activities designed for the purpose of discovering and developing talents which lie dormant. Some of the activities that may be participated in are: athletic, drama, oratory and declamation, music, club life, pageantry, stagecraft, and the Five-Cent concert activity and publications. The Five-Cent concert activity was designed to give expression to all the other activities that relate to that particular field of work.

The building of character is the underlying factor of all of these activities in the school. Each individual is given opportunity so that he becomes aware of the important fact that honest endeavor and his real conduct is the criterion by which he gains his reputation. The slogan which includes these factors is, "Do as you please, remember to be a lady or a gentleman at all times."

Among the things accomplished through the work of the student body with the cooperation of the faculty and the community are the following: a very good pipe organ has been purchased and paid for, properties for school and stage use has been purchased amounting to thousands of dollars; equipment for the band and orchestra has been supplied; the initial order for the school costumes has already been made and asures their use by next fall; and the idea of buying uniforms for all the organizations that will benefit by them is now being throught over.

The Denfeld High School has gained a marvelous reputation and we hope that it will never be marred.

LIBRARY

The Denfeld library is situated at the center front on the second floor of the building. This immense room is well lighted and has been equipped with the best of reading comforts.

The library is supplied with approximately three thousand books, three complete encyclopedias, and subscriptions to thirty-five of the best American magazines. The high school and junior college each have a separate book collection and card catalogue.

Miss Grace DuClos, the librarian, has several high school girls, called cadets, to help her. They assist the students in finding books, and they get out back numbers of magazines for their reference work. The cadets also check the attendance slips, file magazines, shelve books, and take care of the mail.

With the aid of the teachers the librarian has been able to equip the library with the very best books for our reference work. The library is open from 8 A. M. to 4:50 P. M. every school day.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

A small part of the Denfeld commercial department is shown above. This department offers a well established three-year senior high school course.

A commercial geography which treats of reference to industry and commerce has been prepared. This subject is offered in the sophomore year.

A choice between three commercial courses is offered in the junior and senior years. It may be two years of shorthand and typing, or bookkeeping, or retail selling. A knowledge of the fundamentals of shorthand is accumulated in the eleventh year and dictation is given in the twelfth year. The theory of bookkeeping is taught in the eleventh year and erudition of how to open and close books in different types of business is taught in the twelfth year. Retail selling offers practical knowledge and experience in store practice. This course is offered in the twelfth year.

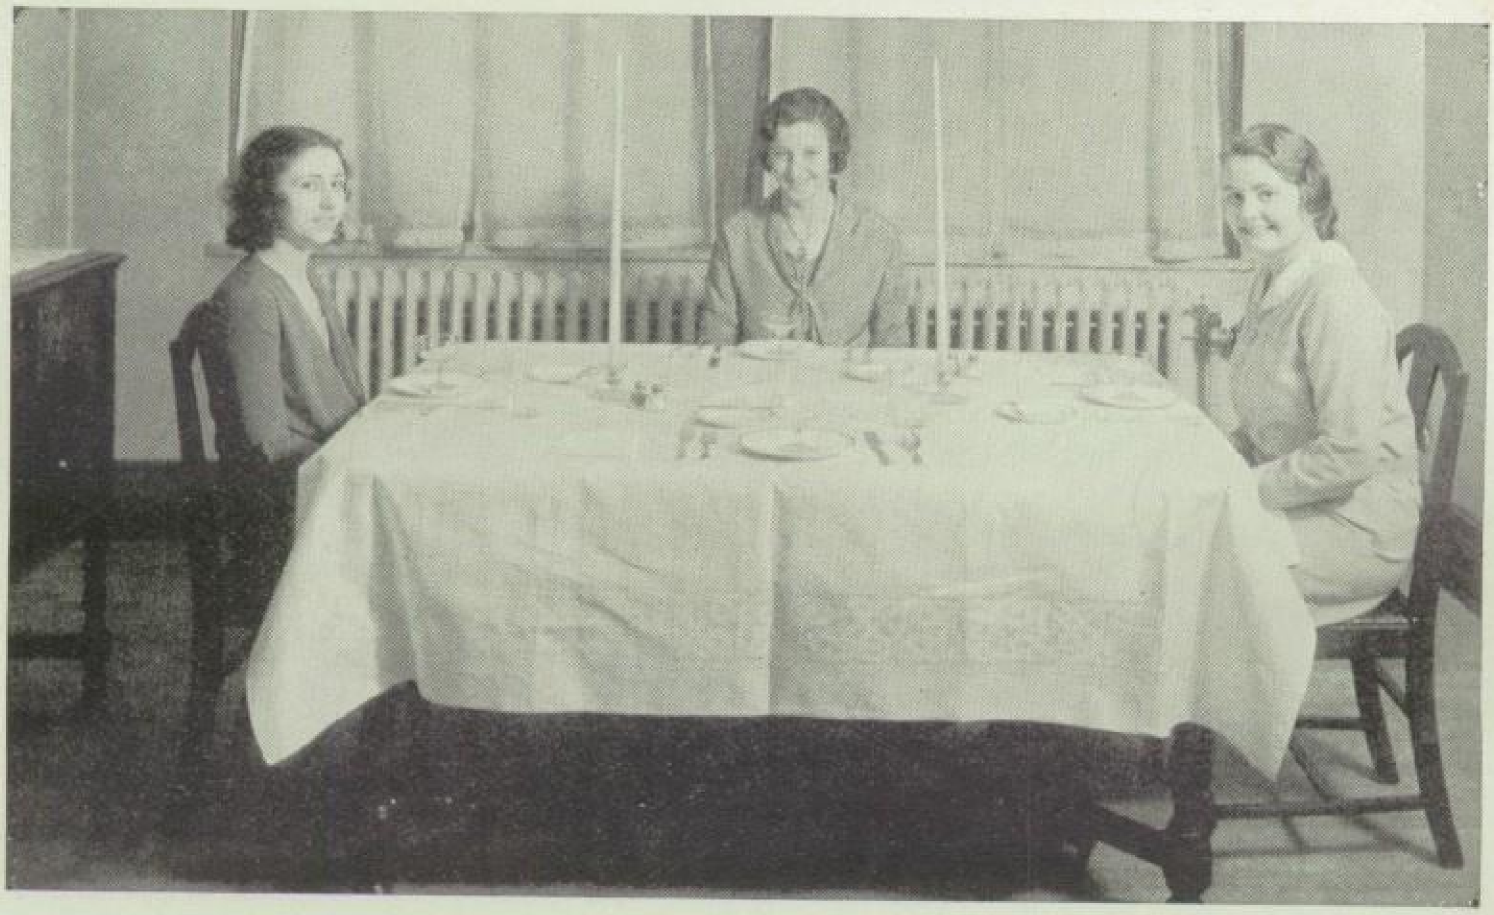
Business law, a study of elementary principles of legal procedure, and personal efficiency, a study of personal salesmanship and development of efficiency, are offered in the leventh year to all commercial students. The students of Denfeld think that personal efficiency helps them in many ways to be better than if they hand't made a special study of this subject.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

"Take interest, I implore you, in those sacred dwellings, which one designates, by the expressive term: laboratories, demand that they be multiplied; that they be adorned; these are the temples of the future, temples of well-being and of happiness. There it is that humanity grows greater, stronger, better."—Louis Pasteur.

In our science department, we attempt to develop a wholesome attitude towards the community. Lasting interests and adjustments to life are our aims. Although courses in science are not necessarily required for graduation, we have a total enrollment of four hundred and twenty-six, one hundred and ninety-eight boys and two hundred and twenty-eight girls.

Courses my be elected in physiography, the study of planets and rock forms; the study and functions of the organs of the human body; in biology, the study of plant and annimal life, as is shown above; in physics, the science of mechanics, light, and sound; in chemistry the study of the composition of substances and of the transporation which they undergo.



HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The work of the home economics department above, is pictured in the food laboratory. The aim of the course is to given students training in different tasks about which girls and sometimes boys need to know about in the home. It also trains students in health habits and helps them to choose proper meals.

The subjects offered according to year are: food and cookery, meal planning and preparation when a sophomore; elementary dressmaking, advanced dressmaking, home planning and furnishing in the junior and senior classes. A special class in cooking is given to the senior girls, aiming to help them choose wholesome foods and to prepare simple family meals.

The department is provided with the very best equipment. The spacious sewing rooms are well lighted and supplied with adjustable tables, closets, and smaller room in which to fit their dresses. The cooking rooms are bright and large with drawers, utensils, and cupboards. They also have a well-furnished dining room.

A survey of credits earned by the girls during their senior high school course shows that over sixty per cent have one or more semesters work in our home economics department.

ART DEPARTMENT

One of the most attractive departments in this building is the art department. The classes are growing immensely. It is always an interesting place to visit. With the exception of the art craft class, classes continue for two periods. We now have around a hundred enthusiastic students taking art.

The rooms are large and the students are provided with adjustable tables, drawers, and bins in which to keep their work. There is cork-board on the walls and cupboards afford a place in which their work can be displayed.

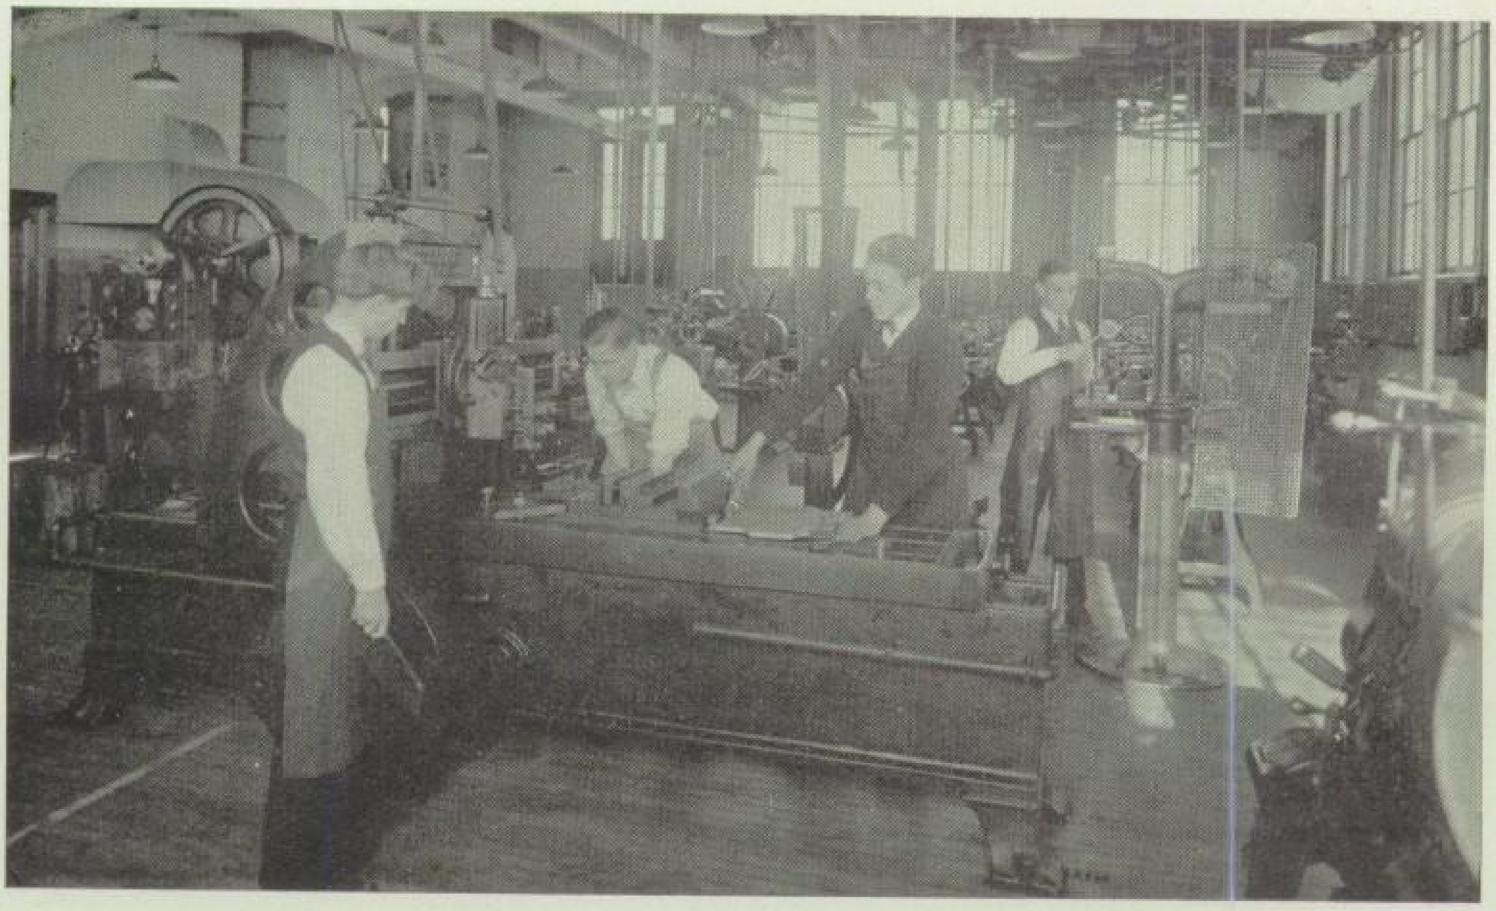
The art department participates in many contests. They work for the Proctor & Gamble soap contest in May, and the Scholastic Awards in March.

The sophomore classes are working on color and sesign, lettering, perspective, and will do, perhaps, some beginning problems in metal.

The senior groups are doing drawing and commercial design work. They have completed their work on masks and soap models.

The art craft class has one period a day. They have made wall hangings, leatherwork, wood carvings, metal work, and wall plaques.

The work in this department not only receives the admiration of its students, but of many visitors.



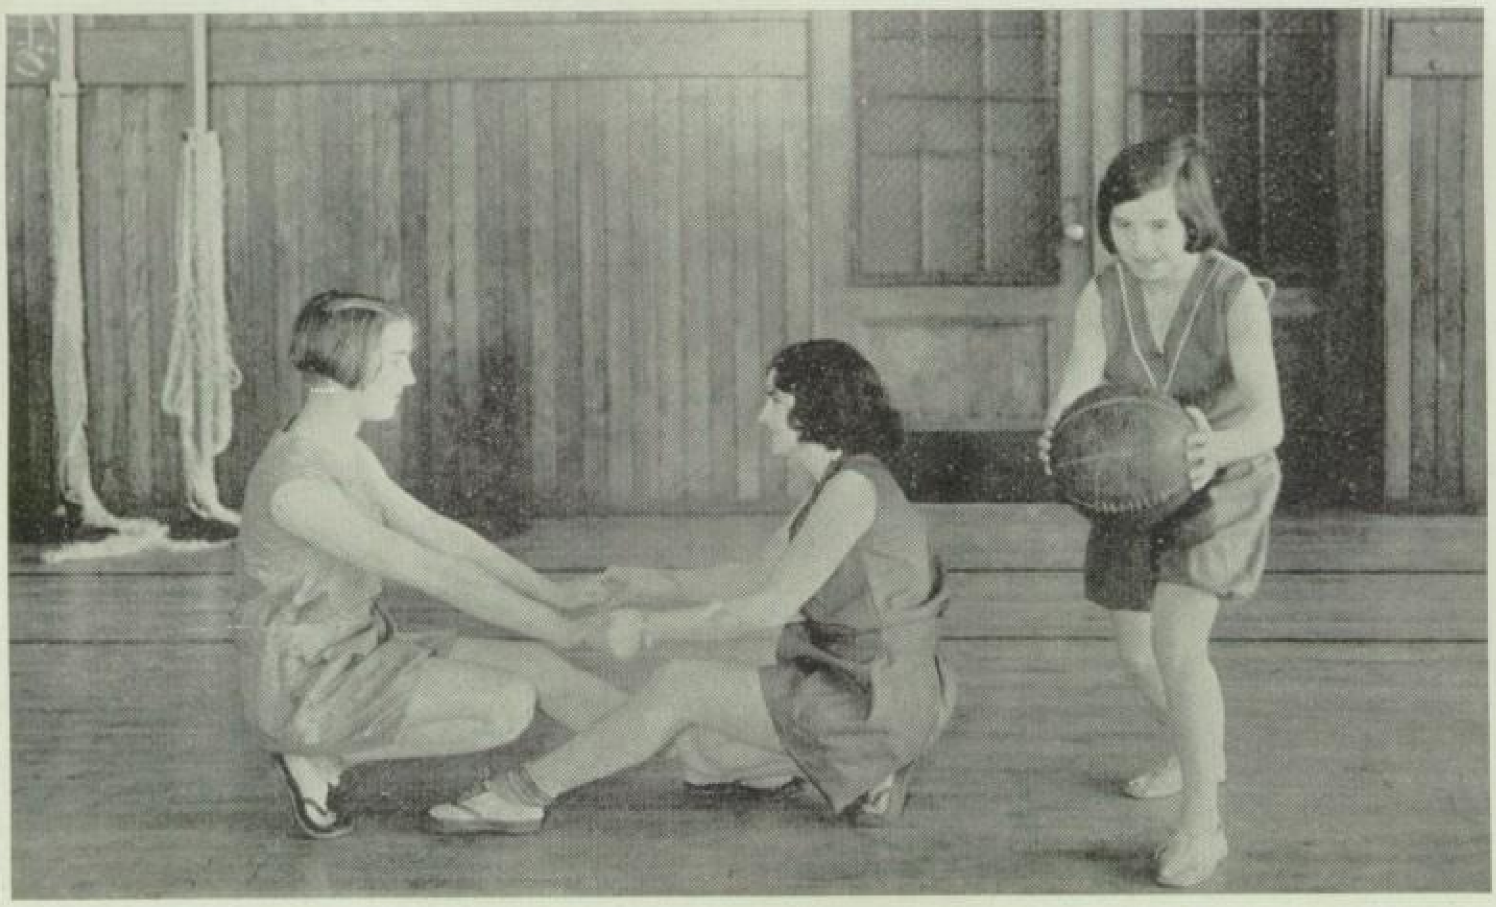
MANUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

The manual training department is composed of many shops. Above, is shown the machine shop.

Two semesters' work is offered in mechanical drawing, the graphic language of the industrial world. It is an important means of developing visualization, strengthening the imagination, and forming habits of careful observation and perception. It is the accepted means of creating a conventional picture of objects. Arhitectural drawing is also becoming a very popular course with the Denfeld boys.

Pattern making and foundry are two subjects which go hand in hand. In order to benefit from either, one must take both. Pattern making is the making of wooden models for sand molds into which liquid metal is poured to form castings of all descriptions. Foundry is that branch of engineering which deals with the making of molds into which metal is poured to form castings. The auto shop teaches you the principles of operation and construction of the motor car.

The course for a good foundation for an electrical vocation is electricity. One semester of building wire is given with one term of direct current motors and generators. The teachers assisting the boys are Mr. Nelson, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Fray, and Mr. Monson.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The Denfeld High School has been supplied with a spacious gymnasium in which every boy and girl may receive plenty of good healthy exercise. One is required to complete two years of this work in class, meeting twice a week. One receives a fourth of a credit a year. Those presenting a doctor's certificate may be exempt from taking gym and a course in hygiene is provided for those students.

The boys in this department put forth an interesting program for the school throughout the school year. They draw the attention of every student from season to season. With the aid of the coach, Mr. Walter Hunting, the splendid football, basketball, and track teams are formed. They have been exceedingly successful this year, considering the inexperience of some of the new players composing the teams.

The girls have shown their enthusiasm in promoting the work of the gym department by organizing clubs through which they can carry on their work extensively. Tournaments have been run off in basketball, tennis, and swimming. The Clogging Club has played a great part in entertaining throughout the year at different plays and concerts sponsored by the school. Miss Virginia Carnes is director of the girls' department.

CLASS HISTORY

September, 1928, found four hundred new "Sophs" at Denfeld. They chose as their leader for this first year William Thalin. Delbert Johnson was chosen vice president; Birney Quick, secretary; and Rodney Quick, treasurer. The "Sophys" started the year out with a "bang." They sponsored a movie at the Doric and as a result they were the first class of sophomores to win the Criterion Cup. They also led the honor roll that semester. Two snappy parties were held at which the All-Sophomore Orchestra featured.

The next semester the Simple-Sophomores changed to Jolly-Juniors. They elected Carl Harpke, president; Birney Quick, vice president; Astrid Holmberg, secretary; and Clayton Burley, treasurer. At the first party of the year, the juniors enjoyed dancing to the music of the Four Duces Orchestra.

The class play, "The Charm School," a three-act comedy was well attended. Melvin Martini and Phebe Hjelm in the leads, and a capable cast, under the direction of Miss Gath, gave an admirable performance.

The climax of social functions was the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Two hundred couples enjoyed dancing in the gym, which had been transferred into a beautiful colonial garden. Punch was served from the "Old Oaken Bucket."

Then as seniors, we chose Dwight Nelson, president; Lyle Brown, vice president; Roy Gustafson, secretary; and Robert Ericson, treasurer.

The senior class assumed the responsibility for financing the Oracle for this year. To raise funds they sponsored several sunlight dances, a travel logue, and a class play. The play, "The Goose Hangs High," is a comedy one of a superior type. The experienced and well-directed coast made the play a success.

Class Night the class made its initial appearance in cap and gown. An interesting program including the readings of the class prohecy, will, and history was given. Commencement exercises were held June 11. At the banquet we shared our thoughts of high school days.

To Miss Bancroft and Miss Thomey, the class expresses its appreciation for their cooperation and untiring efforts which have made possible the success of the activities of the seniors.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1931, being about to leave this institution of learning and being of sound body and mind, do make and publish this as our last will and testament, thereby making void all former wills and testaments by us heretofore made.

To the faculty we bequeath all the memories of our brilliant and well prepared recitations. Our earnest desire is tha the future senior classes will uphold the high and lofty examples of this model graduating class.

To our successors, the jolly juniors, we leave all the worry that we have experienced as dignified seniors, such as grammar and spelling tests, all the responsibility of the publication of the Oracle, financial difficulties, and all other worries that accompany a senior class.

Upon the sophomores, we confer the general air of superiority which all the seniors seem to possess and may it be of grat advantage to them in their future.

Our esteemed president, Dwight Nelson, bequeaths his title and throne as president of the senior class, to the lucky senior of next year, wishing him success in directing the destinies of his class.

Ruth Bjerkness leaves her honorable position as president of the Girls' Club to her successor. May she have the qualities necessary to guide this ship safely into port without any disasters!

Harold Bilsey leaves his title as president of the Boys' Club, earnestly desiring that they may continue to uphold the ideals of clean speech, clean sports, and clean living.

Rodney Quick bequeaths his ability as editor-in-chief of the Oracle to Charles Griesbach and wishes him success in publishing next year's book.

To all the other organizations at school which help to develop strength of body and character, we, the senior class, bestowe our sincere wish that the coming year may be one of great success and many victories.

To the entire student body we leave the "Spirit of Denfeld." It is our earnest desire that all the future students may uphold the high lofty ideals and principles of Dear Old Denfeld. In carrying on life's work may these standards remain with us and be ably applied in meeting the storms and difficulties of life.

In Witness Whereof, We have hereunto subscribed our name and affixed our seal this twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

SENIOR FAREWELL

Our dear Denfeld High School
Is nearly five years old.
But day by day we love it more,
Just as the rarest gold,
Becomes more valuable with age,
Our school gets finer, too.
And pretty soon, when we are gone,
Most anything we'd do,
To be the "kids" in school again,
We've been the last three years,
To run along the corridor,
And have no grown-up fears
Would be the height of exstacy,
And wouldn't it be just grand,
If once again before a class
We could take the same old stand,
And tell them 'bout some battle?
Oh! It would be great.
But it seems—like all things are,
We realize too late.
And now Time won't turn backward,
So best old school that stands
We'll sing your praises everywhere
In foreign climes and lands.

—Delphie Bernett.

Two years ago, as sophomores, we entered Denfeld and were much puzzled, and felt many queer sensations, during our first year here.

We elected Clifford Karvinen, president; Angus Campbell, vice president; Walter Olsen, secretary-treasurer, as our first year officers. Miss Malin and Miss Souba were our class advisers and helped us over the rough places our first year.

On becoming juniors we elected Angus Campbell, president; Clifford Karvinen, vice president; Herbert Johnson, secretary; and Ralph Knapp, treasurer. Miss Van Vorst and Miss Nylander are our able class advisers this year.

We presented "Seven Keys to Baldpate,II a mystery play, as our annual production, on November 21. The play was given to a full adutitorium and proved to be a big success. Edward Martin and Delores Olson played the leading roles. Miss Bokeler coached the play.

The junior class party was held in the community room. Games and dancing made up the program for the evening.

The largest social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom was held May 22, at the Spalding Hotel ballroom. This is the first year the prom has ever been held outside of school, and the idea proved to be very popular. Approximately two hundred and fifty couples enjoyed dancing to the fascinating music of the orchestra.

JUNIORS

We're Juniors—do you like us?
We've one more year to stay
Just watch our high and handsome step,
Before we go away.
We've one more year left—we'll study
And keep our class marks up,
But in between the study times
We'll drain the pleasure cup.
Each football game—each party
We'll write up on our hearts,
And then none can take away
Our Senior past time charts.
They'll live, and live forever,
Tho' it's our third and out
We're starting on the best of all—
Oh, can't you hear us shout?
Be on your way, you Seniors,
It's our turn—you've had yours.
And then next year, our class will sail,
Away to foreign shores.

SOPHOMORE

With valiant banners flying, we face the seemingly gigantic task of opening the doors of knowledge. If we have courage, determination to win, and willingness to learn, we shall swing them wide and find the reward well worth the effort.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Allan Blomberg Carl Carlson Glen Sandberg Jack Gibson

In September, 1930, we, the new sophomores entered Denfeld. We were thrilled to think that we were to attend this school for three whole years.

At out first class meeting we elected Allan Bloomberg, president; Carl Carlson, vice president; Glenn Sanberg, secretary; and Jack Gibson, treasurer. We had a very helpful staff of advisers who helped make our first year here a successful one. They were: Miss McHugh, Miss Saltwick, Miss Hall, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Eade, and Mr. Fray.

Our class party was held April 24, 1931, in the auditorium and gymnasium. We had a very entertaining program made up of class talent in the auditorium, the early part of the evening and the latter part of the evening we danced and had refreshments in the gymnasium. It was one of the loveliest parties ever given by a sophomore class.

This completed our year as sophomores, and now we are all ready to become juniors.

CAPTAIN SOWL
All-Conference Tackle

Each evening the hour of five thirty is marked at Denfeld High by the monotonous sprinkle of steaming water falling on tiled floors—a monotonous sprinkle which serves as the obligato to the lusty shouts of the athletes. It is an extremely rara avis who has not wielded a ball, stick, or athletic weapon of some kind during his three-year sojourn in Denfeld. Be assured there is no illustrious radiator club in Denfeld.

DWIGHT NELSON
All-Conference Tackle

The tang of autumn heralded the start of the 1930 football season at the Head of the Lakes. Fourteen heavy lettermen returned and equipment was distributed to a promising-looking squad of seventy odd men. Denfeld opened play on the spring sod of the new Public Schools' Athletic Stadium, in a dedication game with Morgan Park.

FRANK ERCEG
Guard

Denfeld lost its initial game of the season 12 to 6 to the Morgan Park "Wildcats," before a crowd of full three thousand people. The "M. Ps'." first touchdown came after an exchange of punts when Captain Eddie Nelson cut loose around left end and dashed to our three-yard line where two Denfeld tacklers greeted him with an astounding welcome. Their tackling was sharp and decisive. From there Nelson wormed through for the score.

GEORGE MATTSON
Guard

Hank

RAYMOND SULKOSKI
FULLBACK

There was plenty of noise in the "M. Ps'." stands when the ball bounced out of Olman's hands, as he was tackled, into Minicler's arms who quickly transferred it into six points via his swift feet. Denfeld was thrown into a spasm of delight in the last quarter when her boys blocked a punt on the "Wildcats'" four-yard line and eeled through for a touchdown.

LAWRENCE DANZ
END

A week passed and the Maroon and Gold squad journeyed to Eveleth to meet the Rangers. The combat ended after fifty thrill-packed, breath-taking minutes in a 0-to-0 deadlock. From start to finish the two teams see-sawed back and forth the length of the field, with victory for either side hanging by a thread, but fate ruled that the balance should remain undisturbed at the final whistle. Sulkoski, Nelson and H. Johnson played best for the Denfeld aquad.

LEO HUBBLE CENTER

The following week Denfeld toyed with the Cloquet "Lumbermen." The youngster, Monsrud showed up nicely on the receiving end of Pterson's passes; one of which brought the ball twenty yards to the Cloquet three-yard line where Delageorge, our diminutive halfback elbowed through for the count. Peterson went over the line for a second touchdown after a straight march the length of the field. Captain Sowl, tackle, and Bala, guard did the work on the line. Ours—12 to 0.

EDWARD DELAGEORGE
HALFBACK

The Maroon and Gold football team met the Proctor High School team at the Duluth Public Schools' Stadium the following Friday afternoon. Proctor's main offensive threat was a long passing attack that was hard to stop but the Denfeld ends broke them up. Denfeld chalked up the lone marker of the game when "Penny" Peterson jabbed through the Green and White line and ran five yards for a touchdown. Cliff Hedman, Johnny Dallavia, Captain Sowl and Cliff Monsrud played best for Denfeld.

EDWARD BLAKEY
CENTER

Then followed the Superior trip. The game was staged during the thick of a "miniature" snow storm at Hislop Park. The Superior Central "Orphans" displayed a fast and crafty backfield that simply couldn't be stopped. Denfeld opened an aerial attack in the second half, which after four long successful passes resulted in our lone touchdown. Theirs—19 to 6. All eyes were focused on the coming game with Duluth Central and Cathedral to redeem the prestige that had been so badly shattered at Superior.

GEORGE PETERSON
QUARTERBACK

The Saturday that followed saw Central in attendance and also saw the most thrilling game of the season. According to the "dope" it was to be the best fight seen in years and school spirit was running at a dangerously high temperature. The feature game offered everything the huge crowd wanted in genuine football entertainment, blaring bands, flashing colors, and nerve racking, howling football.

WILLIAM SAGEL
HALFBACK

END

In one of the greatest aerial attacks ever played on a Head of the Lakes gridiron, the Denfeld and Central football teams fought to a scoreless tie before five thousand fan. Play was in midfield for the greater part of the time. Three times Denfeld ball-carriers broke away for nice gains but each time they were dragged down by the secondary defense. Central sat on edge when Eddie Delegeorge got off to a 26-yard advantage.

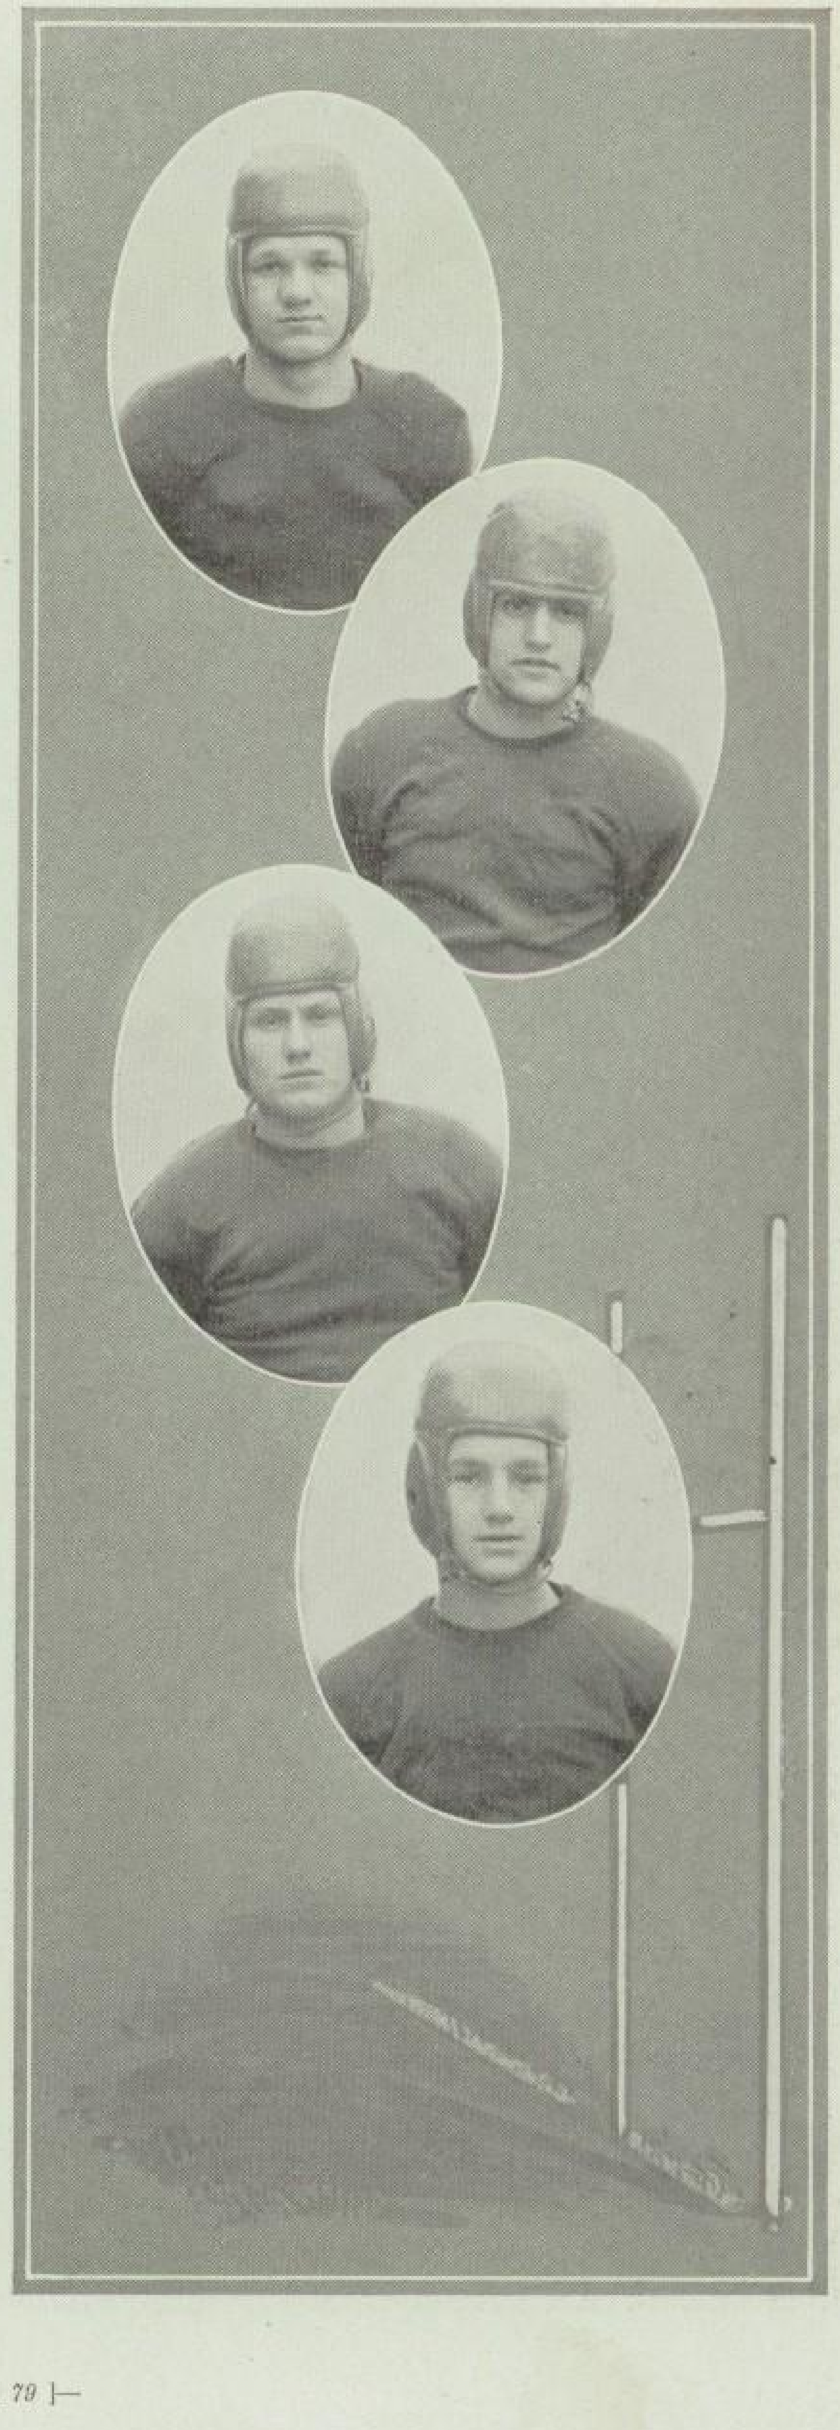
JOHN DALLAVIA
GUARD

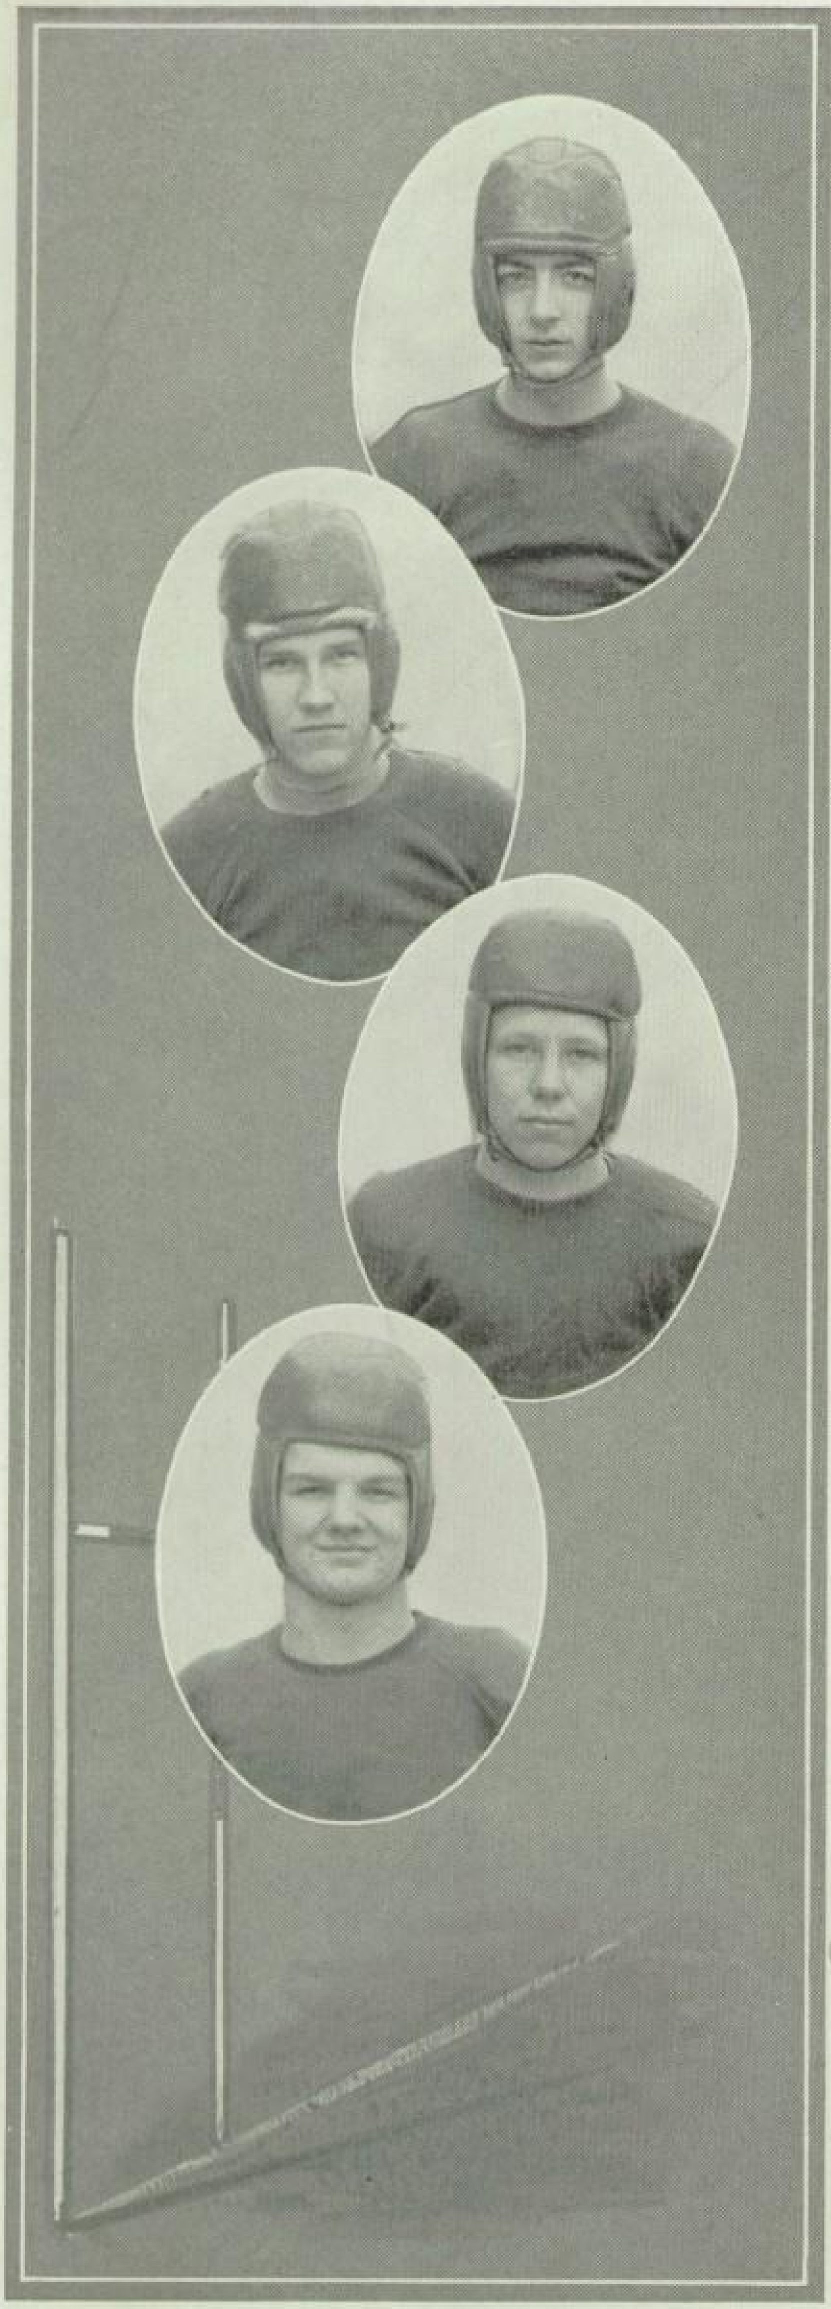
Denfeld's "heart-in-the-mouth" moment was when Central after trying vainly to advance the ball by the aerial routes, punted to the Denfeld two-yard line. Peterson stood behind his own goal post to send a long high punt out to mid-field and let the anxious Denfeld students resume breathing. Another heart-throbbing moment of the game was when Lofstedt threw a long pass to Lessard, who was standing on the goal line, but the rangy end allowed the ball to slip through his arms.—What a game!

RALPH BALA
GUARD

All hands then prepared to avenge the Marron and Gold on Duluth Cathedral who had beaten us 7 to 0 in '29.
Denfeld started out in good style but the varied passing attack and the jabbing end runs of Cathedral's light backfield wore the Denfeld line down considerably. However, near the end of the first half the Maroon and Gold mob smashed their way through from their own 25-yard line down the length of the field for the first touchdown.

CLIFFORD MONSRUD
HALFBACK





FRED LOFSTEDT
FULLBACK

During the intermission Coach Walter Hunting evidently expostulated at length with his charges for they returned to the game, a very changed eleven. Then followed the football exhibit of the season, using the "Pop" Warner wing back system, Denfeld smashed through the line, off tackle, and around the ends with such force that the front line of Cathedral appeared to be demoralized at times.

LESTER ERICKSON
HALFBACK

It was soon apparent the game was to be a free-scoring affair. The first play of the last quarter resulted in a Denfeld touchdown. Then three more followed in rapid order. Cathedral tallied its lone marker in the waning moments of the struggle. Celebrities of the fray were Sulkoski, Monsrud, Nelson and Sowl. Score 30 to 6.

"I've caught it at last. As the shadows lengthened across the miniature battlefield during those last desperate, depressing moments, in the silence during signals I looked around me. Every student was leaning forward, hands clenched, teeth set, following each move of that team—his teams—hurling every drop of power that was in him, out to the men on the field. Signals crashed through the silence. Check! A pause—more signals. The line slowly pivoted into position. The ball was snapped, and unto my veins their welled that something that has driven men until they could no longer stand—the old Denfeld Fight!"

FOOTBALL

Denfeld completed its 1930 football season by trouncing Duluth Cathedral to toss the city title race into a four-way deadlock- each record showing two wins and one toss. Towards the end of the season Denfeld unleashed a powerful diversified attack adopted from the famous "Pop" Warner wingback system and will probably nail the conference championship via this method next year.

Coach "Walt" Hunting had four nice teams ready to put on the field throughout the season. The first string line averaged 175 pounds from tackle to tackle and an counterbalanced backfield running at about 150 pounds.

With the football season completed the sport spotlight has been shifted to basketball. Superior Central had more than once been the conquerors of Denfeld, and our opening game was not an exception. The Superior Orphans scored at will during the first three quarters, and in spite of the fact that the Maroon and Gold quint held them scoreless in the final canto, they had piled up a big enough lead to cop the tilt. Theirs, 28 to 15.

ARENT ERLANDER
FORWARD

To the fast and heady Superior East team Denfeld was doomed to drop her second in a row. The Maroon team after getting a poor start took the lead from the "Old Towners" in the second canto, but went sour in the last half to give the East team the victory. The following week found us facing Cloquet. The Denfeld team held the "Lumbermen" to an even score in the first half, but in the second half of the fray the Cloquet bunch ripped through our defense for consecutive pot shots to annex the game.

EVERT HOLMSTROM
FORWARD

Duluth Cathedral came next, primed for victory. Both teams were quite evenly matched and until the final stanza of the game it was anybody's battle. In the last quarter, with Denfeld but two points behind, the "Hilltoppers" began their belated rally that spelled defeat for Denfeld. An interesting game with Aitkin resulted in a 24-to-19 win. Denfeld spurted along to take a 15-to-7 lead at the end of the half, and managed to hold a comfortable margin throughout the remainder of the game.

CENTER

The next week the team seemed to relax. The Crosby-Ironton quint scored the greater portion of their fifteen points in the opening stanza. Very little scoring was done in the second and third quarters but in the final period Denfeld rallied and scored its thirteen points. Denfeld was now in her mid-season slump. In the game with Morgan Park both teams displayed a tight defense throughout the entire game, but the ability of the Morgan Park team to cage free throws is what enabled the "Wildcats" to defeat us in the final quarter.

DENNIS JOHNSON
CENTER

Undoubtedly the fastest and best mid-season game was played with Duluth Central. The game was forced to go three extra periods before Evans sank a pot shot for the Red and White "Trojans," thus giving them a two-point victory, 21 to 19.

The next game proved easier. Due to the close guarding on the part of both teams, the score was 7 to 4 at the end of the half. Denfeld started the second half at a furious pace which dropped the Proctor High quint by the way with a final score of 15 to 14. Due to close guarding on the part of both teams, the score was 7 to 4 at the end of the half.

FRANCIS DeMORE
GUARD

Play had progressed far more smoothly than it was wont and over-confidence and examinations achieved their deadly hold. Denfeld was held scoreless in the opening period, but opened up a fast-working offense in the second period and was able to even up the score considerably. Theirs, 19 to 12. The Two Harbors game came as a real test of the power of our team, but the "Maroon and Gold" boys played the best basketball this season to edge out the "Northshoremen", 20 to 14.

The next week found us facing our old friend, Duluth Central. The two teams opened at a clip that sent the crowd to the roof. Central jumped into an early lead. Pleas, prayers, petitions, groans, and shouts brought us some action, but nary a tally. One final effort and the pistol ended the game on that fatal 18-to-12 score. A loss to Two Harbors followed in which the team gained much experience in defense. Two Harbors uncovered a smooth, fast-working passing attack to take an early lead and retain it throughout the game. Theirs, 27 to 15.

WALTER OLSON
FORWARD

The following game put an abrupt end to that trailing string of defeats when Denfeld and Duluth Cathedral clashed. The first half was sluggish. Long and short shots were missed. Balls rocketed over the court. The maroon tide rallied in the last half and surged down the floor time after time to chalk up pot shots. Morgan Park was the next victim. The two teams indulged in a little "sand lot" football which only resulted in a lot of idle mirth and chatter in the stands. Ours, 30 to 26.

EDWARD ARBOUR
FORWARD

A real season was finished when Denfeld fell before Chisholm with a 13-to-9 score. The "Maroon and Gold" team had won the district championship and fought its way through finals of the regional before it fell.

May it here go on record that they were a clean bunch of fellows and we're proud of them—win or lose.

TRACK

Spring had arrived and the minds of some forty young men had answered the call of the cinder path to open the season of 1931. These fellows have the stellar hearts; they needed only the tedious practice which makes perfect.

At this time the "Maroon and Gold" squad has not met any outside team in competition but they showed themselves to be much better than the '29 and '30 teams by the marks they set up in the interclass track meet. Louis Chumich broke the school discus record tossing the plate 116 feet 1 inch. Other fellows who showed up well were: Don Peterson, George Mattson, and Arent Erlander in the hurdles; Louis Chumich, Frank Erceg, and "Hub" Johnson in the field; Jay Lessard in the pole vault; "Penney" Peterson in distance runs; Fred Williams and Walter Olson in the 100-yard dash; Harvey Van Horn, broad jump; and Bliss Woodland and Wayne Wicklund in the high jump.

GIRLS' CLUB

All aboard for a trip around the world! Nearly four hundred Denfeld girls became members of the 1930-31 club and started on the trip.

The party started on the Paducah, the naval training ship in Duluth harbor "Eight Laps to Mile and Tea" in the galley of the Essex, the companion ship on the wharf.

The Girls' Club Carnival was the first event in the year's tour. The Boys' Club put on their usual style show in the auditorium; and seldom have tourists seen such unusually attractive models as some of our football stars in the latest feminine creations from Paris. The entire school was given over to booths where flowers and novelties were sold, and fortune telling carried on. Cabarets, dancing, vaudeville stunts, and one-act plays were also carried on. A rollicking carnival spirit possessed the crowd. The treasury was filled and the money necessary to complete the tour provided.

GIRLS' CLUB

In November the Boys' Club entertained the Girls' Club with a most successful evening of dances and games. Later in the tour the girls were hostesses to the boys. Stunts and games were rewarded by prizes after which dancing to the music of the Pep Orchestra and refreshments completed the party.

Just before Christmas the Girls' Club did its bit in helping the Community Chest to make the holiday happier for the poor of the community. The service committee made and repaired toys, filled bags with candy, and bought warm mittens for over seventy needy children.

The Mother-Father-Daughter Banquet occurred in January. The Dollar Steamship Company provided each guest with a log book in which to write the events of the trip. This little glimpse of the tour helped the parents to understand the keen interest their children take in the work of the Girls' Club.

Just before the opening of each new semester, students coming from the junior high schools were entertained at a welcoming tea.

GIRLS' CLUB

Three formal ceremonies were held during the year; two for the initiation of new members, and one of installation of new officers.

The Spring Outdoor Party, in the form of a class field meet, was held at Chester Park. The "Pittman" Cup was not awarded at this meet as the result was a tie between seniors, juniors, and sophomores.

The Arrowhead Conference was held at Hibbing this year, and thirty Denfeld girls attended as delegates, bringing back to the club interesting new ideas as an inspiration for the next year's work.

The Senior Farewell is the Club's goodbye to its graduating seniors. The world tour is over and members of the tour go back to their homes. They are welcomed to an all-day picnic at Camp Miller on Sturgeon Lake where the Boys' Club entertained them with a long-remembered happy day of swimming, tennis, picnic dinner and fun.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

The Building and Grounds Committee is a representative group of students whose duty it is to preserve the standards of the school, protect the interests of the student body and to give courteous aid to all strangers who wish to visit the building. Because of their splendid cooperation in maintaining the standards and ideals necessary in the care of our school, the building is in practically the same excellent condition that it was five years ago as a new building. We are proud of the compliments given us on the cleanliness and excellent care in which the building has been kept and shall strive to uphold the splendid record of the past.

These students, known as hall guards, are stationed in the halls during each class period to help accomplish the above purposes and to keep order among the students in the halls. There are approximately forty-five active members in this organization who have served faithfully and performed their duties efficiently and courteously. Lorraine Carter was student chairman of the group and Miss Julia Seipel was faculty adviser for the year 1930-31.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was organized for the purpose of creating a popular interest in radio, aeronautics, and science among the students. The club holds its meetings each Thursday during activities period, and has proved itself to be on eof the most outstanding interests among the boys.

Miss Malin is adviser for the aeronautics section of the club, Miss Larson, Miss Julia Seipel, and Miss Hall for the science group, and Mr. Fray for the radio group.

There are more than eighty members in the club of which Clarence Cohler is president; Richard Belkengren is student manager of the science group; Robert Bean is student chairman of the aviation group; and Ellsworth Sherman is student chairman of the radio group. The duty of each of these student chairmen is to see that an interesting program ins provided for each meeting.

These three divisions of the club alternate in taking charge of the meetings. During the year some very interesting discussions on the requirements for an aviator, the study of airplane motors, and the types of airplanes have been given by the aviation section. The science section contributed valuable information about air, neon, nitrogen, war gases, coal by-products, and radium. In the same manner the radio group gave discussions of the practical problems of radio.

Having all three of these sections combined in one club, enables the boys to enjoy a varied program in the various phases of science.

USHERS CLUB

Approximately thirty boys and girls make up the Ushers Club of the Denfeld High School. These students usher and assist in the supervision of the crowds at the various school performances given in the school auditorium.

This group is under the supervision of Mrs. Wied and Mr. Taylor and a head boy and girl usher who are chosen each year. William Campaigne and Helen Whipple with Catherine Baumgartner as assistant, held the two latter positions this year.

Working with the usher organization is a ticket committee which handles the box office and other ticket sales.

The permanent ushers listed have ushered at one-fourth of the performances given in the auditorium. These ushers wear a gold button lettered in maroon as their official insigna.

The ushers have no official costume, but the girls wear dark dresses with white collars and cuffs and the boys wear dark suits.

This organization has ushered at the following entertainments this year: Junior Class Play, Boys' Club Play, Senior Class Play, Class Night, Commencement Night, and at eight Five-Cent Concerts.

BOYS' CLUB

The year 1930-31 marks one of the most successful years for the Denfeld Boys' Club during the sixteen years of its existence as a school organization.

At the beginning of the fall semester the annual membership drive netted over one hundred and thirty boys. Of this number about ninety became active members and attended the club's meetings which were held every Tuesday evening in the community room. Supper meetings were held occasionally either in the cafeteria or at the Boys' "Y."

Among the numerous activities of the club during the year were: Boys' Club Party for the Girls' Club, Father-Son Banquet, Co-ed Party at Camp Miller, and the production of a three-act play, "The Boomer." Another interesting feature was the sponsoring of a fifteen-minute prayer meeting each Tuesday morning before school. These short periods of devotion were well attended by the club members. Each year the club sends a number of delegates to the Older Boys' Conference. The three boys that attended the conference at Eveleth this year were Harold Bilsey, George Pearson, and Walter Olson who was elected vice president of next year's conference to be held at Cloquet.

When a boy becomes a member of the club he makes the following pledge: "As a member of the Denfeld Boys' Club I will endeavor by my inward life, and outward conduct to create, promote, and maintain high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community."

The motto of the organization is "Clean speech, clean sport, and clean living."

THESPIAN CLUB

The Thespian Club is an organization which in its three years of existence has shown remarkable improvement and accomplishments in the promotion of interest in dramatics at Denfeld.

The Thespian's activities for this year were numerous. They have given short, one-act plays at each Five-cent Concert; as a unique feature, they sponsored a play-writing contest for their members. Rosemary Eckman was the lucky winner. She wrote a play called, "He Who Last Laughs." This play was presented during the spring semester.

The club had a masquerade party at which costumes of every description were worn. The party was a big success and everyone that attended had a peppy time. The club also held several supper meetings during the year.

THE PYRAMID

The Denfeld Pyramid Club is an organization whose purpose it is to maintain a high standard of scholarship, conduct and honor. This group also shapes and guides the school sentiment and activities.

A representative from each home-room in the school meets each Tuesday where the school activities and interests are discussed. After this discussion the respective members report the action of the group to the home-room which they represent urging support to the various activities.

The code of the club is "Cleanliness, Courtesy and Cooperation." The name, pyramid, signifies a three-fold plan of organization: first, the base symbolizing the whole student body; second, the representative body supported by the base of the pyramid; third, the executive committee representing the peak of the pyramid.

The Pyramid's activities during this year included a Clean-Up Week, Study Helps which were presented in the form of several playlets in chapel and talks by members of the student body and faculty; the sponsoring of the Alumni Play; and a Welfare Drive which made possible the distribution of approximately forty well-stocked Christmas baskets to the needy.

The officers for this year are: Robert Bean, president; Lawrence Olson, vice president; Runar Erickson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Bernice Brennaman was was faculty adviser for the organization this year.

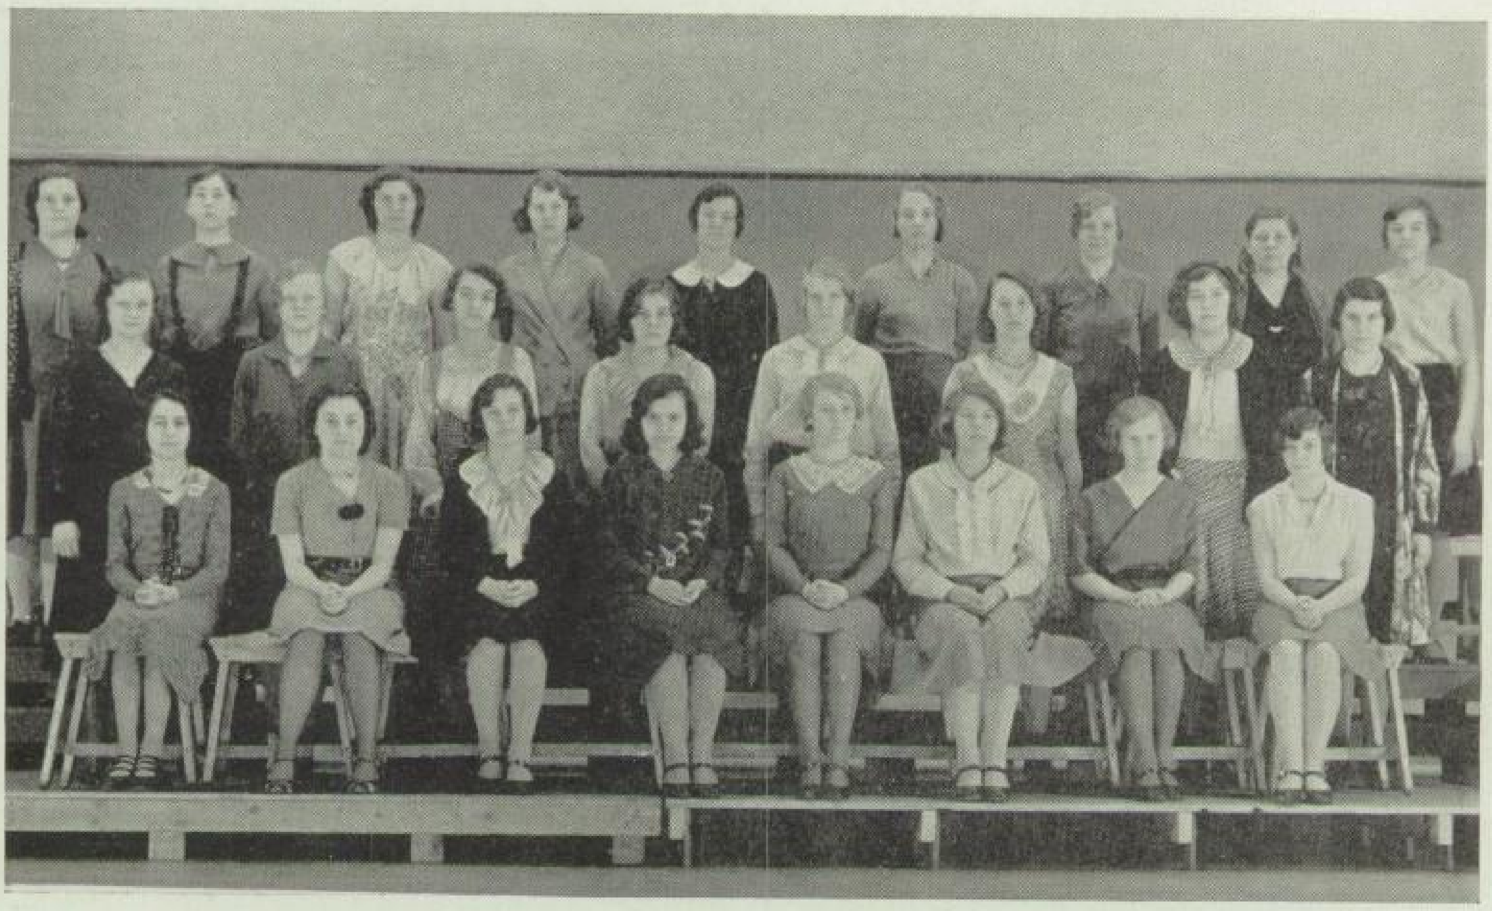
GLEE CLUB

The music department of the school has gained extensively this year through the adoption of a glee club composed of junior and senior members. It is a mixed group of both girls and boys. Under the able directorship of Miss Nan Rund and Mr. George Parrish, it has developed marvelously into a perfect working machine. They have sung at Five-Cent concerts and also on the stage for school activities. There are approximately fifty members in the group, all excellent singers. There voices have often blended together in some beautiful or novel number.

Another glee club, composed of only sophomores is prevalent at Denfeld. They too have sung at various school activities. This group presents a chance for the incoming girls to do their "stuff." This group is composed of about twenty-five members.

Then we have the boys' quartet. No group has presented as much enjoyment to the students of the school as the boys' quartet. The singers are: Melvin Martini, George King, Herbert Johnson, and Angus Campbell.



First Row—Ruby Anderson, Martha Anderson, Martha Arbuckel, Elsa Gafvert, Esther Anderson, Miram Dunleavy, Geneoa Erickson, Helen Ericksman, Catherine Hetherington, Irene Johnson.

Second Row—Sophie Kalamaya, Ruth Lasch, Maybelle Nelson, Margaret A. Nelson, Margaret K. Nelson, Muriel Norman, Rosemary Huberty, Dorothy Peterson, Amanda Schmidt, Evelyn Scott.

Third Row—Virginia Varney, Ruth Wilkinson, Helen Olson, Lois Jane Johnson, Ruth Hjelm, Eunice Aldrich, Catherine Armond, Leone Smith, Elsie Thygesen.

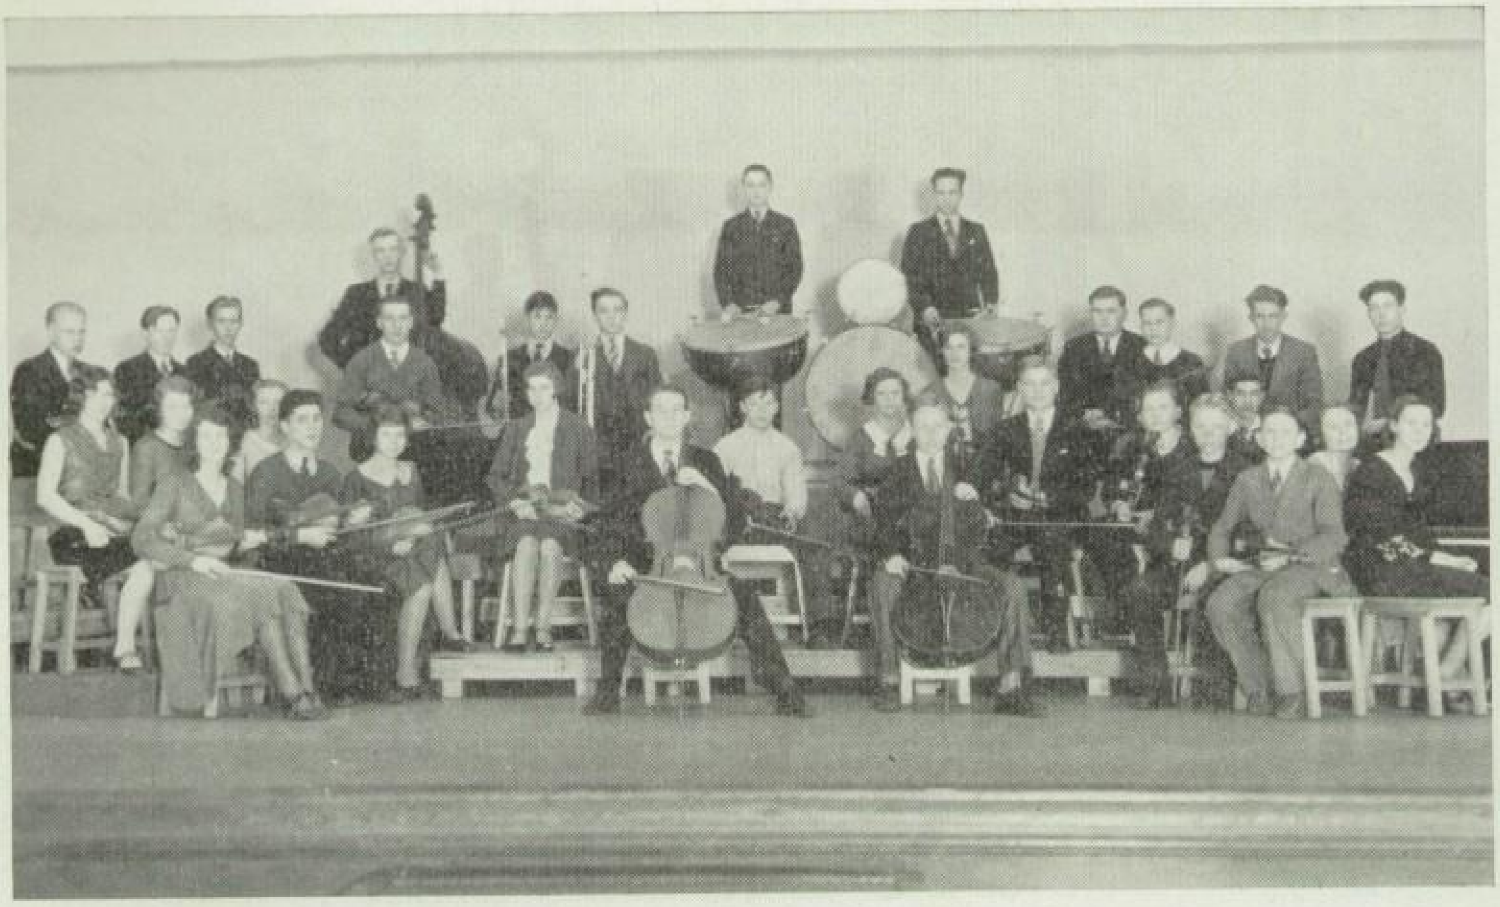
GLEE CLUB

Another quartet, is the girls' quartet, composed of Muriel Nelson, Louana Gamache, and Alice Asplund. They sang only once for the school but they have been active throughout the whole year.

One day the glee clubs combined and presented a bit of harmony which filled the auditorium with joyous sounds.

The two directors have been working hard and next year they plan to go even more extensively into group singing.

Though the clubs lose a number of singers through graduation this year, there will be enough old members left to form an excellent club in the fall, and we may look forward to much delightful entertainment next year.



First Row—John Brandenhoff, Ronald Hoel, Donald McCubbin.
Second Row—Walter Evans, Vernon Kenitz, George Lamper , Raymond Hoel, Robert Lampert, Harold Jorgenson, Stuart Fisher.
Third Row—Ann Velancis, William Anderson, Mary Grace Burton, William Kehoe, George Person, Clarice Bernard, Everett Olson, Frank Puglisi, Betty Lamont, Pearl Van Hala.
Fourth Row—Lucille Ball, Lyle Brown, Audrey Alt, Elizabeth Fairchild, Milton Johnson, Grace Johnson, Marvin Carlson, Meal Jensen, Chester Bjorlin, Ilo Billings.
Fifth Row—Donald Peterson, Herman Olson.

ORCHESTRA

Denfeld is proud to say that is has two orchestras. The first orchestra is made up of experienced players and the second orchestra of beginners. The former has twenty-one members and the latter group has twenty-four members.

The experienced group has played on several Five-Cent concert programs, and between acts for the junior and senior class plays. Much of the success of the opera, "The Sorcerer," was due to the musical background and accompanyment furnished by this orchestra.

Besides the regular rehearsals, the members meet once a week and are instructed in orchestra theory, which makes them more proficient as players. Mr. Parrish is the director of both orchestras.

Instrumentation is as follows: thirteen violin, two cornets, piano, one cello, two clarinets, one drum, one string base, and one French horn.

Third Row—Robert Lampert, Lawrence Rowson, Kenneth Johnson, Ronald Hoel, Clayton Mattson, Glenn Sandberg, Chester Bjorlin.

BAND

In its two years of existence, the Denfeld band has become a very representative musical body. Mr. George Parrish has been the able director of this organization.

Mr. Charles Helmer, superintendent of music in the Duluth schools, has also been very helpful in that he has directed and taught those students wishing to learn to play an instrument.

The band did much to promote pep at our football games last fall. It has also played for Five-Cent concerts and chapel programs. The band has had a very successful season this year and is looking forward to an even more successful one next year.

Stunning maroon and gold uniforms have been purchased for the band, but it is doubtful whether the boys of this year will be wearing them as this school year is practically over. Our band will be a thrilling sight when they appear in our new stadium next fall in their new suits, to play "Dear Old Denfeld."

ORATORY AND DECLAMATION

The fourth annual Ahl Cup contest in declamation and oratory was held at Central High School on February 15, 1931. Three schools, Central, Morgan Park, and Denfeld entered contestants.

Denfeld was represented in declamation by Willard Mealy, giving the selection "The Finger of God," and in oratory by Melvin Martini giving the selection "What Price Peace" by Kathleen Norris.

Each of the Denfeld contestants took two first places, thereby receiving the Ahl Cup for one year. The cup so far has been wonce once by Morgan Park, once by Central, and twice by Denfeld. Morgan Park now has ten first places, Denfeld nine, and Central five.

At the end of five years the Ahl Cup will be awarded permanently to the school with the most first places. Next year will decide where the cup will eventually remain. Here's hoping for success to Denfeld!

D. F. A.

The Denfeld Financial Association was organized for the purpose of purchasing supplies and selling them to the students of the school.

The purpose of this organization has been carried out very successfully in that it has proved invaluable to the students in having an excessible amount of school supplies at a low price.

This group of students also handles the advance sale of reserved seat tickets for all high school plays. Tickets for other entertainments are sold in advance by this group. This service has been extremely valuable to all organizations sponsoring any entertainments, for they are assured of an efficient handling of their advance ticket sale.

Courteous, prompt service is their motto and they surely have succeeded in satisfying the students.

The D. F. A. is open before school, during both lunch periods, and after school waiting to serve you.

The officers of the present year are Clifford Hedman, Fred Johncox, and Milton Carlson. Miss Idella Bradley is the faculty adviser.

Charles Robinson.
Second Row—Howard Hazen, George Pearson, George King, Walter Evans, Lyle Brown.
First Row—Berley McCarthy, Clifford Hoekstra, Harry Peterson, Agnes Nelson, Catherine Hetherington.

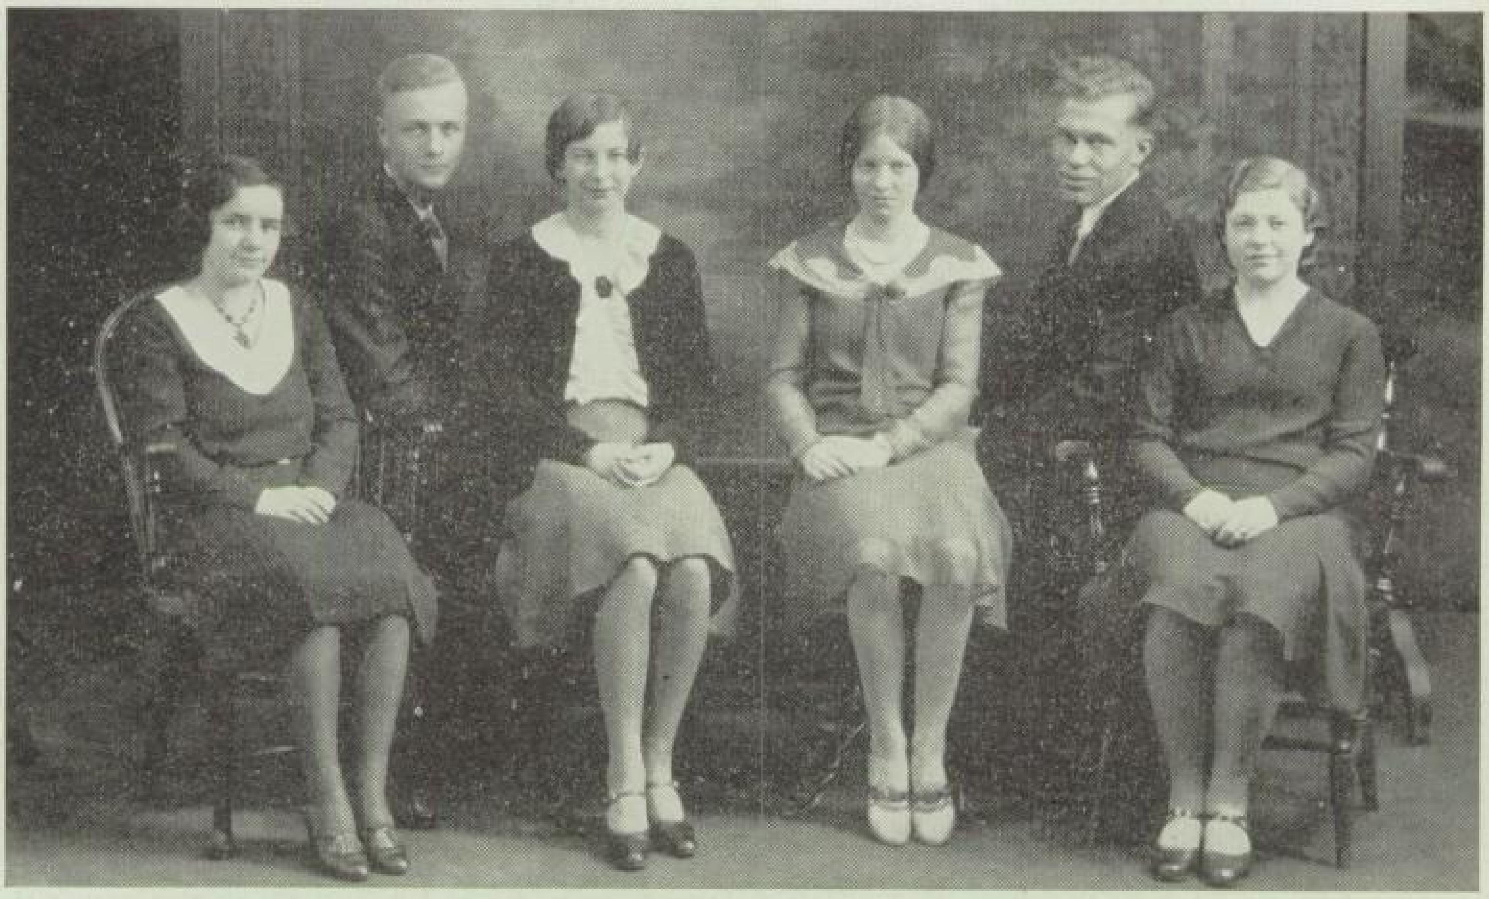
PEP ORCHESTRA

Pep Orchestra has become very popular and active group during its second year of existence. This orchestra was formed by the Pyramid Club under the direction of Miss Hall for the purpose of playing at social functions in the school.

A committee composed of Miss Bockler as chairman, and Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Edwardh, and Miss Carnes act as chaperones for the dances given. This orchestra has added greatly to the popularity and success of the sunlite dances which have been given by the Pyramid Club, the Oracle, and the senior class. This orchestra has also given dances to raise money for the purpose of purchasing its own music. The music for evening club parties has been furnished by this group.

The orchestra gave their services free of charge to any organization desiring it to play.

There are eleven members in the orchestra. They are as follows: Agnes Nelson, Catherine Hetherington, pianists; Lyle Brown, Walter Evans, violinists; Robert Bean, Charles Robinson, Howard Hazen, trombone; George Pearson, George King, cornets; and Bartley McCarthy, Clifford Hoekstra, saxophones.



Dorothy Scott, John Brandenhoff, Elizabeth Fairchild, Harriet Kakeldy, Richard Belkengren, Clara Shodeen.

DEBATE

The debate squad is not very often heard of, but nevertheless, it is a very active organization. They are an industrious, studious group which begins studying three months before they give a debate, by searching all the libraries, and papers they can secure for available material.

The squad this year was made up of three seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore. The negative team consists of Dorothy Scott, senior; Elizabeth Fairchild, junior; Clara Shodeen, senior. The affirmative team has as its members, Harriet Kakelday, sophomore; John Brandenhoff, junior; Richard Belkengren, senior. Miss Snodgrass and Miss Riddle coached the group.

The question for debate was, "Unemployment Insurance," a very vital modern question which proved to be very interesting.

Denfeld participated in the annual triangular debate which was held April 24, 1931. Our negative team met Duluth Central's, and our affirmative team debated with Superior Central's negative team.

Second Row—Ethel Lindholm, Margaret Jamrock, Florence Halliday, Opal Frykman, Mary Puglisi, Virginia Larson, Ebba Kjerstad, Lillian Olson.
First Row—Lorraine Keldsen, Jennie Anderson, Ruth Olin, Harriet Kakeldy, Elina Anteroinen, Amanda Schmidt, Ruth Johnson, Ruth Johnson, Helen Kilby.

CANDY SHOPPE

The Candy Shoppe was originated in the fall of 1929 with about twenty girls in charge, two girls serving at a time during the fourth and fifth periods and after school selling candy bars to the students. The proceeds were applied on the Denfeld pipe organ debt as was also done this year thereby aiding substantially in the reduction of the indebtedness.

Two girls, Harriet Kakeledey for the first semester and Helen Kilby for the second, served as treasurers for the organization. Miss Souba took charge of the buying of supplies and the directing of the shoppe. Girls serving faithfully in shoppe this year were: Ethel Lundholm, Margaret Jamrock, Ebba Kjerstad, Mariam Solstad, Anna Puglisi, Helen Kilby, Ethel DeNio, Mariam Erickson, Dorothy Wilmot, Florence Hallidy, Virginia Larson, Ruth Olin, Elina Anteroinen, Opal Frykman, Ruth M. Johnson, Lillian Olson, Lorraine Kelssen, Amanda Schmidt, and Jennie Anderson.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

The scholarship committee composed of four members of the Pyramid, meets after each grade period to discuss problems of students failing and to devise ways by which these students may overcome their difficulties. Failure, due to physical causes may be adjusted through consultation with the office and admission to clinics provided by the Board of Education and Public Health Service.

The faculty members are Miss Thwaites, Miss Brenneman, and Mr. Eade.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE AND COLLEGE COMMITTEE

The Vocational Guidance and College Committees have worked together this year and have accomplished much in helping the graduating students decide upon their chosen life work.

Self-analysis cards were given out to seniors this year on which, the desired vocation, the amount of education the student would be able to complete, and questions the students would like answered as to his vocation were written down. Conferences were then held, individually, with these students and their questions were answered.

The Vocational Guidance Committee has kept vocational records of graduating students since 1922. They have a definite record, which shows the percentage of graduates in professions, the percentage that entered trades, and the percentage of those in unskilled labor. These records are kept for the purpose of knowing whether or not a student has followed up the vocation he or she chose when leaving school, and for the purpose of keeping an interest in Denfeld graduates.

On College Night, vocational talks by experts in every vocation were given the students. Vocational advice was also given by Mr. Stanford, a national vocational adviser.

The advisers for this group are Miss Thwaites, Mrs. Weid, Miss Thomey, Miss Larson, and Mr. Fray.

WELFARE COMMITTEE

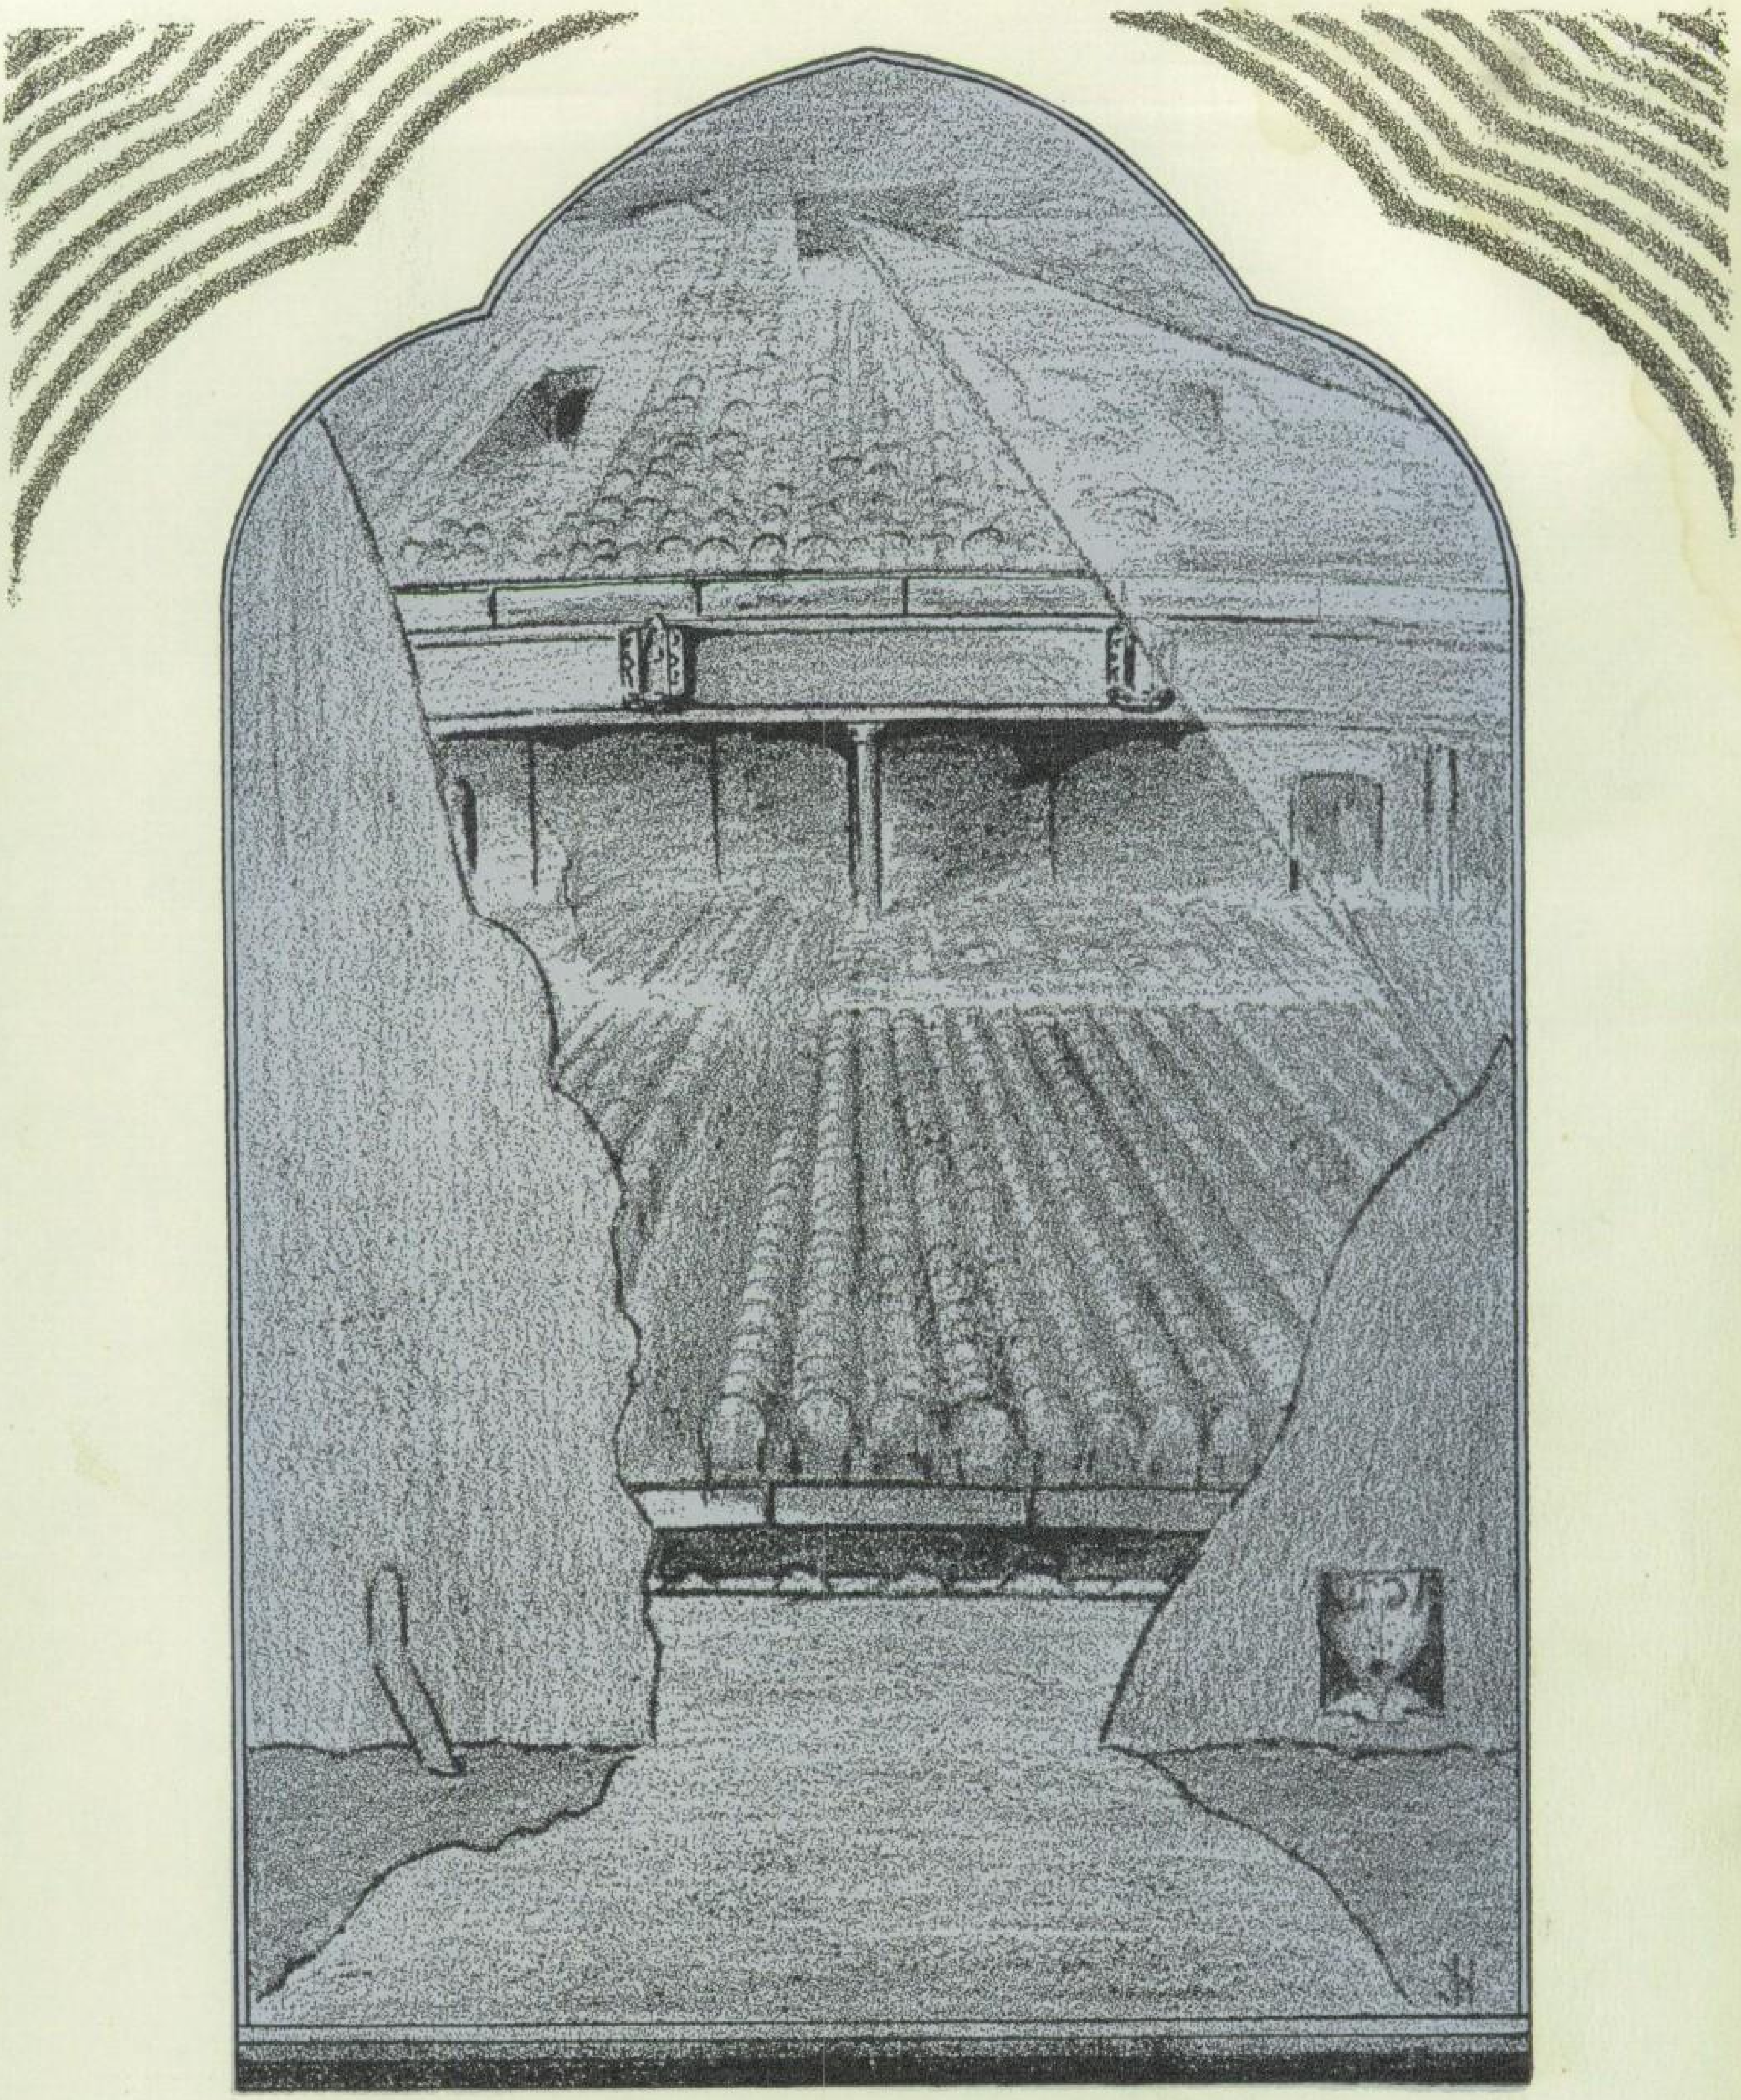
The Welfare Committee, a branch of the Pyramid group, carried out its program most successfully this year. An enthusiastic and generous student body was right ready to serve the Welfare Committee when it came to filling the Christmas baskets. The boxes which each home room was given were returned to the committee, gaily decorated, and filled with canned goods, preserves, clothing, and staple goods which the students had brought from home. Money donations were used to purchase the perishable foods for the boxes.

Many families were made happy with these wonderful Christmas Welfare baskets. Miss Brenneman was in charge of this committee.

PEP CLUB

The Roaring Fifties became the Pep Club this year because of their increased membership. This group was very active during the football season and promoted much of the pep for our games. Peppy chapel programs, new yells, and the selling of pom-poms were the cause of the increased pep and school spirit shown this year. The decoration committee of the club made three new, beautiful maroon and gold banners which looked just wonderful flying over the new stadium. These flags were hung in the gymnasium during the basketball season. The stadium was decorated by this group also. The Pep Club is growing each year and soon will be one of the outstanding extra-curricular activities of the school.

Miss B. Larson and Miss Saltwick are the advisers for the club.



DRAMATICS

A bit of make-believe, of sparkling sunshine when our mood is gloomy and pensive, heartens us for the tasks before us. Long may it thrive in Denfeld—the drama.

Luck to you
Bernice

"THE BOOMER"

"The Boomer," a three-act comedy was given by the Boys' Club Friday, February 13, under the very able direction of Miss Mary Elizabeth Creglow.

The scene of the play was a small Indiana village, called Hoopstown. A "city slicker" persuades an unsuspecting young lawyer that a big firm has selected the town as a factory site. The townspeople get options on their land and Hoopstown booms. The fraud is discovered by Mae Morris, an amateur detective. The play comes to a dramatic climax as Ephraim, the colored janitor, brings the villain to justice.

The moral "Right is Might" was interwoven with the humor and excitement of the plot justifying the enthusiastic reception it received from the faculty and community at large.

"SEVEN KEYS TO BALPATE"

The junior class presented the mystery-farce, "Seven Keys to Baldpate" by George M. Cohen, in the school auditorium on November 20. The plot of the story concerns a young novelist who, on taking a bet, is given the supposedly one key to Baldpate Inn. After many thrilling occurrences including a murder, it is found that there are six other keys and the story ends when the entire affair is found to be only a ruse planned by the owner.

"THE GOOSE HANGS HIGH"

The senior class play, "The Goose Hangs High," the dramtic triumph of the year was presented by a talented cast before 1,500 people in the auditorium March 20.

The story centers around two college students home for their Christmas vacation whose parents are the self-sacrificing kind who think only of their children while the twins themselves profess to be ultra-modern with their own ideas on marriage, art, and careers. When the father, rather than to become a tool of scheming policticians, resigns his position, and the family faces financial ruin. The collegian's sophistication proves to be only a mask for their true virtues and real love for their parents.

Much praise is due to Miss Aurora Mattson for the fine coaching she gave the actors; Miss Leona Thomey for the financial success of the play; Miss Genevieve Bancroft for planning the artistic stage setting and costuming.

PAGEANT

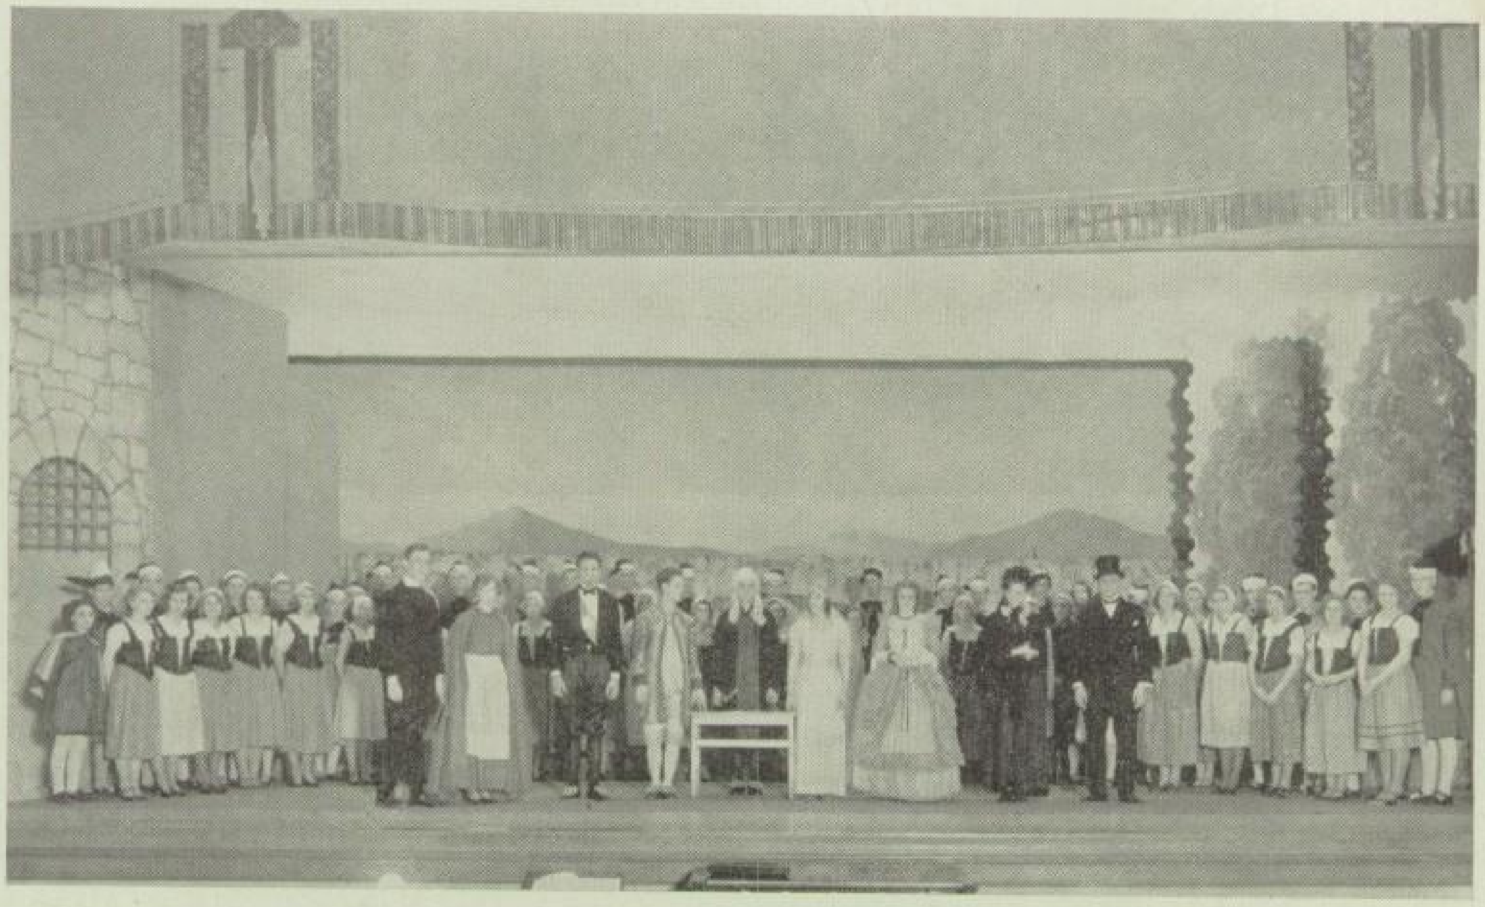
The annual Christmas Pageant with a cast of more than two hundred students was given as a regular Five-Cent Concert Thursday, December 18. The story was based on the play "No Room at the Inn," by Esther E. Olson, with adaptions and additions by Mrs. Katherine MacWied. Two performances were given both to large audiences.

The four scenes in the pageant take place in Bethlehem, on the eve of Christ's Birth. The mother and child Malthar are making clay lamps when they hear of a young couple turned away from the inn. The neighbor children enter the family circle, dancing joyously about the fire ask the mother to tell them a story.

She tells the story of the dedication of King Solomon's temple. so vividly that they actually see it. The procession entering the temple preceded by the chanters of the twelve tribes of Judah who have brought their most precious gifts to Jehovah with the hope that these will be acceptable to the Lord.

In the third scene the child Malthar insists that her father bring the little crooked-nosed lamp to the young couple who are staying in a dark cave. As she watches her father approach the hillside a strange light appears in the heavens lighting the cave the angel chorus proclaims this humble token as a perfect gift. To the humble manger where Joseph and Mary watch beside the Christ Child come the shepherds and wisemen with songs of praise and rejoicing.

The cast and spectators join in the final triumphant chorus of "Adeste Fidelis" in worship of the Christ and Jehovah.



"SORCERER"

The music department under the direction of Miss Nan Rund and Mr. George Parish, aided by Miss Beatrice Larson, presented the "Sorcerer," a Gilbert and Sullivan opera, in the Denfeld auditorium, February 26. The setting and csotumes were old English.

The story takes place in a little English village of the early 18th century. Alexis, who is deeply in love with Aline, believes everyone should marry for love regardless of age or position in life. He buys from the Sorcerer a magic potion which he serves in the tea at his marriage feast. The results are both amusing and tragic. Everyone falls in love with the first person he sees. To break the evil spell the magician sacrifices himself, then everyone goes back to his former lover.

The soloists displayed much talent and were aided by an enthusiastic chorus.

CHRONICLES

Herewith is a presentation and a record of the many activities and achievements of the student body during the school year.

DENFELD QUEEN

LOIS CHRISTIANSON

The Denfeld Queen, who is nominated by the seniors, and elected by the student body, is one who represents truly the ideals of the school embodied in a typical Denfeld girl. Character, scholarship, popularity, and participation in activities of the school are the qualities considered in making the choice.

In a simple, impressive ceremony Lois Christianson was crowned queen at an honor chapel where she awarded a letter "D" to students in recognition of outstanding work done in scholarship, athletics, and extra-curricular activities. Those seniors who have an average above ninety, and two sophomore girls of high scholarship as pages, comprise the queen's court of honor. Annie Anderson, Richard Belkengren, Harriet Halvorsen, Astrid Holmberg, Evelyn Huus, Inez Lindman, Ethel Nordling, Ingrid Strom, Phoebe Hjelm, Belle Ihle, and Eunice Love were the honored students.

ALUMNI

Graduation from Denfeld does not mean breaking off of relations between the graduate and the school.

The Denfeld Alumni was formed in the year of 1919 for the suppress purpose of keeping the graduate interested in the activities of the school and to give the new graduate an interest in outside activities without entirely severing his connections with the school. Each year the Alumni Association grows in size and in its ability to carry out its program. The Alumni organization has done a good deal in the twelve years of its existence to help the school in its activities in the line of athletics and in regard to dramatics. Each year an Alumni-Denfeld football game is played and each year the organization sponsors a play. This is presented with the able assistance of the Denfeld Pyramid.

During the season several social affairs are held besides the several regular business meetings. The first and possibly the most prominent of these social gatherings is the annual homecoming party. This is the party of great interest to both the Alumni members and the members of the student body. Other parties are held at Christmas and Easter at which time old students get together to swap stories, tell jokes and in general, have a dandy time. These parties have a wonderful effect in holding the graduates of yesteryear more closely with the students of the present school body.

The Alumni in accordance with its motto, "To stick together for Dear Old Denfeld" had during its existence lived up to its motto, in every regard. It was the Alumni that planned on the pipe organ and it is the Alumni that is seeing the project through to the finish. The proceeds of the organization's play each year go to the pipe organ fund. Last year's success was "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" while this year's presentation was "You and I."
